AFTER OPIUM SMUGGLERS.

$8000 Worth of the Stuff Said to be Buried Across the Lines.

Winnipeg Sun: On Saturday night Detective Leach, acting under orders from the customs authorities, seized a team of horses belonging to a man named McCowan, who resides near Ogilvie's mill. McCowan, it is said, is charged with bringing the team across the line, contrary to the statutes. At the bottom of the whole affair, however, it is alleged that McCowan took across the line some weeks ago $8000 worth of opium, which is said to be buried near the boundary somewhere. Two American detectives, who are now in the city, have been working on the case for some time. An investigation will be held by Mr. G. H. Young, customs inspector, this afternoon.

ROAST PUP.

Edison's Employes Experiment on a Dog Lunch.

Roast dog lunch was served in the Edison Electric Light works, in Harrison, N. J., and it was tasted, nibbled and eaten by twenty employes, most of the employes, half a dozen of whom were girls, who knowingly ate the meat and pronounced it good. Notwithstanding a report to the contrary, there was no effort to play any trick or to disguise the character of the meat from anybody. In fact, it was arranged two or three weeks ago that a trial of dog meat should be made in the shop. Mr. J. Trumbull Marshall, of Meruchin, who is employed in the Edison works, promised to furnish the dog. William Masterson, an East Newark friend, gave him a young Newfoundland pup which had eaten nothing but crackers and milk since it was weaned. Mr. Masterson got the pup from Mrs. Smith, a neighbor. Mr. Marshall took the pup home and fattened it up on eggs, milk and crackers. He killed the dog on Thursday, cooked it on Friday, and brought a large portion of the choicest parts to the shop on Saturday. It was cut up in small pieces and taken through the shop at lunch time. Everybody was told what it was before being asked to try it. Some of the girls had qualms when they heard that roast dog was being served, and one of them was made ill. Others of the girls took small pieces of the meat and ate it, saying it was like chicken, young pork and veal. Few of the men refused to eat it, and it was all consumed.

Now Mr. Marshall says that he is going to try roast cat, or cat fricassee. He thinks it should be as good as dog meat, and he avers that dog meat is much more cleanly and wholesome than pork. The only fault he found with the meat that he prepared on Friday was that it was too fat, and the next time he will not fatten his animals so much. The men whom the great inventor has gathered around him include very few hard-headed conservatives. Any one them is always willing to try an experiment.—New York Sun.

A Town of Apt Names.

Tombstone, Ariz., is famous for its apt names. Its leading newspaper is called the Epitaph, and the sheriff of the county is Colonel Slaughter. He defeated Major Blood by two votes at a recent election. Captain Cutts was also a candidate.

A Much Married Man.

The Sultan of Turkey madly desires legal release from 289 of his 300 wives by going to one of the States with his matrimonial mess. The way to prove it is his desire would be to propose to one. He would find plenty of attorneys willing to take the whole batch of cases at reduced rates.

Mysterious Murders.

During the past five years five mysterious murders have been committed in San Francisco, and none of the murderers have as yet been arrested. During this period there have been several murders among the Chinese that have never been discovered, owing to the fact that the Celestials stick and protect each other in their crimes, which are usually well planned and carefully executed.

Postal Tube.

The English people are contemplating a plan to lay down a postal tube between Dover and Calais. The plan is to submerge tubes, of about a yard each in diameter, by means of steel cables across the channel, forty yards above the level of the sea. The steel cables will be fixed to pillars at distances of about 800 yards, and in each tube a little railway will run with cars capable of carrying 450 pounds in weight. Any parcel of greater weight than this will be taken, and the cost is estimated at the modest figure of $5,000,000.

A Broken Comet.

Mr. Barnard, of the Lick Observatory, discovered on Sept. 2, 1888, a comet which is now in the morning sky. While observing the comet on June 25, at 3 a. m., he noticed that the normal tail of this comet, which should be directed away from the sun, had disappeared. In its stead was one, a degree long, which, however, directed toward the sun, at an angle of 90 degrees. This is an interesting and somewhat rare phenomenon, and somewhat rare phenomenon, probably is the physical explanation probably is that the comet is now so far [illegible] that the sun is no more able to [illegible] a force on the tail of the usual formation of the comet is [illegible] All the same, from the effects of probably breaking [illegible] which it has previously the influences to [illegible] and is leaving behind it [illegible] subjected [illegible] original mass, which will [illegible] to form a stream of meteoric [illegible] These [illegible] meteors constitute the tail which [illegible] observed.—San Francisco [illegible].

Carnegie and Protection.

Mr. Andrew Carnegie, the great American steel king, is evidently about to apply his operatives the bold doctrine [illegible] insisted in a recent article, that the capitalist is entitled to more than a fair interest on his investment, and that the accumulation of wealth, by whatever means, in the hands of individuals is a benefit to the community, because one man can do more good than many moderately prosperous men. His workingmen, however, do not appear to be of [illegible] opinion, for they want higher wages [illegible] to live less money, that is should have more and will strike rather than submit to reduction of their wages. Mr. Carnegie's workingmen are in a position [illegible] present time which is throughout the United States should cause a good deal of hard thinking among workingmen of all classes. During the last Presidential campaign the protectionists published [illegible] broadcast as being the typical product of protection, and a sad picture was painted of the result in their property of tariff reform. Now that the election is over and the tariff is safe for another four years, Carnegie once proceeds to show that his men are, indeed, types of the laborers, protection creates by reducing their wages.

Outlaw Expelled.

MUST TAKE WATER.

London, June 30—The cabinet yesterday discussed the troubles at Delagoa Bay, and formulated a sharp note to Portugal. Lord Salisbury will not submit mildly to the high-handed manner in which Portugal has undertaken to deal with British capitalists, and he is determined to make trouble for that kingdom unless her ministers back down squarely from the position they have assumed in the Delagoa Bay railway matter. It is significant that two of the great London dailies have already notified a number of their correspondents to prepare for foreign service.

TEST CASES IN THE L. C. D.

London, June 30—Lawyers in England, no more than in America, are content with glory pure and simple. Notwithstanding the prominence which counsel on both sides secured by the Chetwynd-Durham trial, their bills for services have not been appreciably lightened on that account. The costs to each of the litigants amounted to £10,000.

A PECULIAR FACT.

London, June 30—It a letter to the papers Dr. Charles Sturgeon, the distinguished cattle authority, calls attention to the fact in the new version of "Hymns Ancient and Modern" the same tune is set to two of Faber's hymns "Our Father" as to his wedding march, "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden," and why this should be so, he says, is a mystery. Another correspondent points out that "the same is known to most cattle men and women, although whether, as Sturgeon Wilde, of fame, the knowledge is worth much, is another question.

[illegible] FACTION RIOT.

Glasgow, Mo., June 30—A riot between rival factions, numbering about twenty persons, occurred on a street of Glasgow yesterday afternoon. The difficulty was the outgrowth of a local feud. John Hatton met Louis Watts on the street and commenced throwing stones at him, finally rushing at him with an open knife. Watts drew a revolver and opened fire. Friends of the men rushed in and the fight became general. Aaron Johnson and Louis Watts received fatal wounds. John Hatton was shot through. Six other persons were injured, Al. Hendon being shot in the leg of the left Albert Carter in the fleshy various injuries, and others [illegible] police and sheriff's [illegible] ies from stones. The men refuse to sign Carnegie's scale. The superintendent agreed to sign the firm's scale. The decision to strike will [illegible] be [illegible] striker's places.

[illegible] STATES.

The war department takes a different action and will not alter the flags till the formal admission of the four new states.

PRICE OF OPIUM ADVANCED.

RIOTING IN CORK.

Cork, July 1.—A proclamation prohibiting the holding of a Nationalist meeting yesterday was disregarded. The result was that Wm. O'Brien and other speakers were arrested. Grain on the High Lands Will be Away Above the Average.

Toronto, June 30—Reports received from many sections of the province indicate that the high land crops give promise of being better than for many years past, while low land crops are expected to reach the average yield.

GREAT EXCITEMENT.

Rich Placer Diggings on Indian Reserve Near Vernon, B. C.

Spallumcheen, B. C., June 30—It is reported by Capt. Cummings and others that there is great excitement at Vernon over the discovery of rich placer diggings on the Indian Reserve, near that place. The [illegible] are [illegible] the [illegible] the [illegible] are leaving for the diggings. London, June 30—The Echo [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] other fast resorts to study the [illegible] and manners of the demimonde, are that they are immensely amused who they discover men of their acquaintance flirting with members of the "demi-monde." A Ferry Boat Sinks—Many Narrowly Escape With Their Lives—The Holiday.

Special to THE TIMES.]

Toronto, July 1.—The demonstration of the Liberal party attracted about six thousand persons to the exhibition grounds on Saturday. There were games of various kinds. The public meeting held in the Crystal Palace was largely attended. The speakers were Sir Richard Cartwright, M. P., Hon. O. W. Ross and Hon. A. S. Hardy.

Sir Richard Cartwright discussed the question of reciprocity at considerable length, contending for the removal of all barriers between this country and the States. He discussed the house of commons vote on the Jesuit estate act, and defended it. The liberal party, he said, "could not consistently with its doctrine of provincial rights have voted for disallowance."

Hon. G. W. Ross devoted himself chiefly to the question of separate schools and French teachings.

THE CELEBRATION.

A Grand Day of Weather and Sports Vancouver Full of People.

Special to THE TIMES.]

Vancouver, July 1. Over a thousand people arrived from Victoria this morning. Victorians can be justly proud of their athletes. A finer body of young men than your firemen, baseballists and lacrosse team it would be difficult to find.

A large crowd met the Islander and Princess Louise on their arrival. The weather is beautiful and everything points to a grand success. The city is thronged with people. New Westminster sent fully 1500 over.

Victoria was represented in the parade by the Garrison Artillery in uniform and the Victoria firemen with their new uniforms and hose reel, which was decorated in grand style. The lacrosse and baseball teams were also [illegible] At noon a salute was fired by the fleet of warships. Flags are flying from all the flagstaffs and the whole city is decorated. LUMBERMEN AGITATED.

Ottawa Lumbermen Incensed at the Government's Action.

Ottawa, July 1.—Lumbermen here are very much agitated over the government only taking one dollar off the duty on the export of logs, instead of wiping the whole three dollars off, and were to-day making such representation to the government. They say that the United States will certainly retaliate against our export duty by increasing the duty on lumber, so export to there. This will be fatal to the trade.

The game played at the Caledonia grounds on Saturday afternoon was the best on record in the series and was won by the Mayflowers with a score of 4 runs to 3, made by the James Bays. Three hundred spectators witnessed the game. For the winning team Gus Gowen was pitcher with Borthwick behind the bat. Jackson and Hannon were the battery for the James Bays. Gold made two good catches in left field; Borthwick, Gus Gowen, N. Gowen and Williams scored one run each for the Mayflowers; Hannon, Smith and Wishardt reached the home plate on the James Bay side. The Bays were not pleased with the decisions of the umpire, which is a natural consequence with the losing team. The next game will be played by the Mayflowers and Mapleleafs.

ROSE CONTEST.

The Victoria boosemen arrived in Vancouver on Sunday morning. Reports will be received from them this afternoon by telegraph, after each race. The reports will be posted on the Adelphi corner and on the door of the central fire hall.

"Truth Crushed to Earth, Etc."

It is reported that the jitbel wave has struck Donald, far off there as it is in the mountains. Mrs. Samson did not enjoy such a lucrative business while practicing her mystic art in Calgary as could be desired and lays the blame, so 'tis said, at the door of Truth, whose observations upon her calling were removed several degrees from the complimentary. The good woman, accustomed as she had been to the adulation of a city and also a Vancouver contemporary—both masters in the art—did not take kindly to the breezy paragraphs of Truth and will, according to report, put the editor on the rack at the instigation and with the concurrence of the spirits.

To the Editor of The Times.

Sir,—The recent death of Wood and the death some months since of Arthur Pinney during several in succession the already large number of those who have died intestate and brought with it additional responsibilities upon the government to find the cost of the estates of the property, hardly calls for some more effective mode on the part of the present [illegible] for giving publicity to the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

THE DAY WE CELEBRATE.

As a nation Canada attained her majority one year ago to-day. Some there may be who will cavil at the use of the word "nation," as applied to what they would prefer to describe as a "dependency" of the British Empire. But in its truest and highest sense Canada possesses all the advantages and most of the distinctive characteristics of independent nationality. With the solitary exception of the war-making power, our young Dominion is complete master of its own affairs. True, our statesmen are not clothed with the privilege of ratifying treaties with foreign nations, but next to this their right to legislate as they deem best in respect to the tariff, is unquestioned, and removes to a large extent the feeling of dependence on the mother country which would result from a subordination of our commercial interests to Imperial control. Possessing with the utmost freedom of action, a country covering half a continent and embracing within its borders all the resources, by the development of which a country can alone become great, and peopled as it is with six millions of freemen, the imperialist cannot deny us the claim to nationality and far less beclond the bright picture which the horoscope presents of the future. Canada as a nation, then, attained her majority just one year ago to-day. As a people we have this advantage over the nations of Europe—we know when, where and under what circumstances we were born, and for all time we will be able to celebrate the day of our nativity, providing the weather is favorable. Like Topsy, the nations of the old world seem to have "growed" to their present stature. They were never well able to account for their coming into the world. They have their festivals to commemorate, the anniversaries which mark the successful revolutions that washed away with blood abuses hoary with age—events which forever changed the current of their [illegible] days, as have the nations of this new world. Here the civilization of Europe was planted on virgin soil, and it has taken strong root and flourished. Events followed each other with marvellous rapidity in the new land as compared with the old. While Rome had a thousand years in building, Canada has emerged from nothing into full national life in less than a century. The foundations of the new commonwealth were laid in the pre-confederation days and in scattered communities by different nationalities. These uniting in 1867 the Dominion of Canada was created, and now in its twenty-third year, it stands out a bright star in the galaxy of nations, inhabited by a people who have already earned a name for energy and enterprise, who in physical and intellectual capacities are unsurpassed by any people of the world, who in all generations will be at the top just as sure as oil will always rise to the top of water.

PRIMROSE DAMES.

It is somewhat interesting to note that while SALISBURY finds material for congratulation in the political activity of the Primrose Dames, LABOUCHERE describes them as "not a happy family."

He says: "The feud between the Abergavenny gang and the Marlborough gang rages. In the meanwhile, as there is a strong suspicion that the funds of the league are not spent in the best way, it might be as well that the accounts should be published. The income—if really the league numbers as many members as it boasts—must be enormous. Is the league ashamed of publishing accounts? The Parnell commission is, almost every day, endeavoring to obtain the books of the Land League. The Times counsel imply that the fact of any account book and any voucher not being forthcoming is a damning evidence of guilt. If so, what are we to think of the determination of the Primrose League not to tell even its own members how its income is spent?"

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Lord Londonderry spent during his brief viceroy in Ireland nearly fifty thousand pounds sterling in excess of his official income and allowances.

Stanley believes that a white or light colored race of people is to be found in the heart of Africa. According to Herbert Spencer and other scientists the discovery of such a race is not an improbability. Humidity has more to do with the color of the skin than heat, and, contrary to the popular opinion that the people of Africa are necessarily black as a effect of the climate, the discovery of an Aryan white race living in the [illegible] climate of the hills and mountains would be consistent with scientific theories.

readers and make-up men and 71 pressmen—a veritable army, as one may see.

The report is again revived that the Ottawa Government is in communication with the authorities at Washington with a view to the early settlement of the boundary line between Alaska and British Columbia. In view of the enormous cost of an accurate delineation of the line provided by the treaty between Russia and Britain (estimated at $4,000,000,) the government of Sir John A. Macdonald will suggest that the United States surrender to Canada the long strip of land which for five degrees runs along the coast, thus giving to British Columbia a continuous coast line from its southern to the northern boundary. For this strip of territory the Dominion of Canada will give an equivalent along the eastern boundary of northern Alaska, which at present is the 141st parallel. As the coast strip of Alaska, including adjacent islands, contains nearly all of the territory that is worth having, with the gold mines of Douglas Island and the towns of Juneau and Sitka, it is quite unlikely that Uncle Sam will seriously consider the proposition. The United States may not be very anxious to acquire territory, but it is still more averse to relinquishing any that it has got. The delimitation of the Alaska-British Columbia boundary, if it is ever to be accomplished, will be on the lines proposed by Mayor Grant, of this city, viz., by straight lines between given points, giving to each country approximately the same extent of territory as would be received by a line following the sinuosities of the coast.

"A Montreal judge has severely reprimanded a lawyer who appeared in court wearing a gown over a tweed suit. The lawyer said he didn't see what difference it made whether his suit was tweed or broadcloth so long as he behaved himself, and he doubted whether any judge had a right to peer under his gown to see what kind of clothes he wore. Next thing, he said, the judges will want to know what vintage of flannels a lawyer wore, and when that point was reached he gave notice that he would kick. The liberty of flannels was as sacred as the right of free speech, and if it was infringed he would invoke the Magna Charta. The judge, however, was inexorable, and declared that a tweed suit must not be worn with a gown." This—which we take from a New York paper—reminds us of an incident in this city some years ago. It was, we think, Mr. Pooley, the burly Speaker and expectant Attorney-General, who came into court without his wig, and thoughtlessly attempted to address the court without the regulation head gear. Mr. POOLEY is a gentleman of commanding presence, tall, muscular, shaggy-haired, with a look of determination flashing from a pair of small, kindly eyes. He opened his address: "My Lord"—but he never got any further. The chief justice ignoring the lawyer's presence because his head was not adorned with the old-fashioned wig, in his most dignified tones and with a far-away look, said: "Mr. Clerk, do I hear some person speaking? I see no one addressing the court." And then Mr. Pooley, reminded by a brother barrister that he had subjected himself to commitment for contempt of court for appearing in undress uniform, thrusted a scarlet, felt the top of his head, with a blush, and retired precipitately to the dressing room. Donning his wig he again returned to court and the wheels of justice rolled on with their wonted smoothness.

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—A man without a character is always making a fuss about having it vindicated.

—Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is pleasant to take; sure and effectual in destroying worms. Many have tried it with best results.

—It was a woman who saw the first snake, but since then the men have attended to that sort of thing.

—Why go limping and whining about your corns, when a 25 cent bottle of Holloway's Corn Cure will remove them? Give it a trial, and you will not regret it.

—The best reasons: Balkley—What's the matter, Dash boy? Why don't you sit down? Calkley—Cawn't, you know. Got on a standing collah.

—Joseph Rasan, Percy, writes:—I was induced to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil for a lameness which troubled me for three or four years, and I found it the best article I ever tried. It has been a great blessing to me.

—Besides what she said to hubby—Alexander Graham Bell, in science, calculates that a mother in talking to her infant speaks 36,000 words a day—equal to about four hours continuous talking.

—Ease by day and repose by night are enjoyed by those who are wise enough to apply Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil to their aching muscles and joints. A quantity easily held in the palm of the hand is often enough to relieve the most exquisite pain.

—Freddie—Why, old chappie, I heard that the sheriff sold you yesterday; and yet here you are with your stick and eyeglass same as ever. Teddie—Oh, me boy, the law won't take away the tools of one's trade, don'tcherknow.

—Mrs. M. Stephens, of Albany, N. Y., writes us as follows: "My strength was so weak that I could not eat anything sour or very sweet, even fruit at teatime would cause Heartburn, fullness or oppression of the chest, short breath, restlessness during sleep, and frightful dreams of disagreeable sights, so that I would often dread to go to sleep. With the use of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery this unpleasantness has all been removed, and I now eat what suits my taste or fancy."

—A London correspondent says that the queen wears no large stones or flashing gems. Coincidentally, we may remark that it is the same way with us though the probabilities are that the queen gets the biggest wages.

—THE THIN CANNOT GAIN IN WEIGHT if they are troubled with dyspepsia, because the food is not converted into the due proportion of nourishing blood which alone can furnish the elements of flesh. But there is no reason, when this wasting, attenuating disease is conquered by Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, why there should not be an appreciable gain in weight, which indeed is usually the case. It is a peerless remedy also for Constipation, Liver Complaint, Kidney troubles, and restores all tissues from the blood.

TRAINING THE PHYSICAL MAN.

The Muscle of Men as the Mind Should Have Their Quantity Drawn Out.

Exhibitions of remarkable skill and endurance on the stage or in the circus ring, however useless the feat performed, may have a certain value to the thoughtful as demonstrations of the perfection to which the physical organism can be brought by constant drill and exercise. The gymnasts, acrobats, dancers and jugglers do things that seem almost impossible, simply because they have for years trained their eyes and muscles to perform a limited number of operations, have practiced incessantly and made their movements almost automatic.

If men can do these things, that simply serve to amuse other people, they can, by similar perseverance and practice, perfect themselves in useful occupations. Leaving out of consideration the arts (wherein, however, technical skill is almost as much to be desired as natural taste or talent) there is scarcely a mechanical occupation that could not be elevated and improved by such devoted practice as the professional acrobat gives to his feats of agility. A juggler practices certain movements of the hand almost incessantly for years before he becomes so highly skilled as to be able to deceive spectators by his sleight of hand performances. A mechanic equally devoted to the business of getting his hand trained to do his will would become a remarkable workman in much less time.

The fact is that too little attention has heretofore been given to the possibilities of hand training for useful work. The stage and the circus ring have for years shown us that there is scarcely any limit to be put to what man may accomplish through the training of his muscles. Crowds have wondered at and applauded performers with no greater intelligence than the average spectator, and have never thought of applying the lesson to themselves and making better use of it than that of posing for the amusement of the public. The gymnast, the acrobat, the juggler are men who have learned how to use their muscles who have trained their eye to quick seeing, flash judgment to prompt decision, who have taught themselves to keep control of their nerves in an emergency, and who have, above all, practiced certain movements so diligently that they can perform them without effort, almost unconsciously. They have not assumed that education is to be applied only to the mind, but, frequently to the neglect of the latter, have applied educational methods to the muscles of the body which other people neglect. One may easily imagine a skilled juggler who would wonder quite as much at a schoolboy's ready answer to questions in arithmetic as the school boy would at his feats of balancing or sleight of hand. The wonderment in each case is dependent upon the ignorance of the one and the skill of the other in fields that are open to both. Until recent years it has been assumed that the muscles need little training that cannot be acquired in the ordinary course of life without special instruction or effort. The results achieved by specialists should, however, correct this view.

The Germans have carried this thought to a logical conclusion by providing more generally than other people for the training of hands and eyes in the kindergarten and for carrying on similar exercises in their turning schools.

The object is not to make gymnasts or acrobats of the pupils any more than the teaching of drawing in the public schools is intended to make artists of all who receive such instruction. The purpose is to give healthful development to the muscles, and lay the foundation for the development of skill of hand in any undertaking. This is not done at the expense of mental education, but, as experience shows, by promoting the physical health, it quickens and strengthens the mental faculties, at the same time giving them needed relief from too much strain. All the tendencies of modern educational thought are toward a broader and more liberal education in the direction not of multiplying mental studies, but of extending school training to hands and eyes as well as to made up his mind that he would devote the remainder of his life to discover the whereabouts of his family. For the past twenty-four years he has had that sole object in view. He has traveled and worked, bearing the brand of innumerable hardships to accomplish his purpose. In Missouri the old man obtained the first clew to the whereabouts of his son Allen, who was reported by a white man to be in Paris, Tex. The old man worked his way to Paris and there met the son Allen. From him he learned the whereabouts of his other son and daughter, whom he visited.—Chicago Times.

Need the Yankee.

South America presents many good opportunities for young America just now. That portion of the great western continent is settled by former residents of Europe, who bring with them the prejudices and conservatism of the fatherland. The English speaking portion of the population is principally drawn from Great Britain and, course, these people lack the push and progressiveness of the Yankee as an instance of this conservatism my brother, who is in Buenos Ayres, had great difficulty in inducing a railway company, with which he is employed, to make use of the typewriter. They finally brought one from the United States, and have since obtained several more. They say they would not do without them now.—Kansas City Journal.

There is one peculiarity about the Paris girl, which, while it provides a somewhat delicate subject to remark upon, is so extraordinary that we must forget our blushes and criticise. The amounts to fair to a deformity. It is a most distressing to see a pinafore young girl tripping along the avenue with a torrid protuberance for all the world like a pewter pigeon. And what is more surprising is the thought that, as a rule it is entirely au naturel. I scarcely know how to account for this phenomenal growth of the Parisienne, unless it is that so many of these girls that worse on the scenes and at the theatres are the daughters of country women who were accustomed to working in the fields and carrying loads on their heads. They undoubtedly inherit the full development of the neck and shoulders peculiar to their employ.

Notice is hereby given that [illegible] August, 1889, to the Supreme Court of [illegible] Province of British Columbia, [illegible] Victoria, Province aforesaid, [illegible] day of June, 1889.

By order,

WELLINGTON J. DOWLER, C. M. C.

Dated at Victoria, B.C., this [illegible] day of June, 1889.

The Street Railway Guarantee By-Law, 1889.

WHEREAS BY A BY-LAW ENTITLED THE "Street Railway By-law, 1889," passed in the Corporation of the City of Victoria, on the 5th day of December, A. D. 1888, a charter to [illegible] was granted by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the said City of Victoria, to J. Douglas Warren, Andrew Gray, David W. Higgins, Joseph Hunter and Thomas Shotbolt, to lay tracks, erect poles and string wires thereon for motor, lighting and other electrical purposes.

And whereas, the said J. Douglas Warren, Andrew Gray, D. W. Higgins, Joseph Hunter and Thomas Shotbolt have since assigned all their right, title and interest in and to the said charter or franchise, through the Honorable John Herbert Turner as Trustee, to a company incorporated and known as the National Electric Tramway and Lighting Company, limited liability.

And whereas, the said National Electric Tramway and Lighting Company, limited liability, is desirous of prosecuting to completion the work contemplated and provided for by the said charter or franchise, and have applied to the Corporation of the City of Victoria for aid, in order that the said works may be speedily constructed and put in operation.

And whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said company for such aid by a guarantee of interest at the rate of five (5) per cent. per annum for a period of twenty years on the sum of forty thousand dollars ($40,000), for a part of the undertaking contemplated by said company, namely, for the purpose of constructing and equipping a Street Tramway or Railway.

And whereas it will require the sum of two thousand dollars ($2000) to be raised annually by special rate for the payment of said interest, in the event of the said corporation being called upon to pay the money.

And whereas the amount of the whole rateable property of the said Corporation of the City of Victoria, according to the last revised assessment roll, being for the year 1889, was $3,758,465.00, irrespective of any future increase of the rateable property of the municipality and of any income in the nature of tolls, interest, or dividends from the work, or from any stock, shares or interest in the work upon which the money so to be raised or any part thereof is intended to be invested, and also irrespective of any income from the temporary investment of the sinking fund or any part thereof.

And whereas for paying the said interest (in case as aforesaid) it will require an equal annual special rate of one twenty-eighth of one per cent. on the dollar;

And whereas it is intended to reduce the general rate so that the special rate shall not increase the total rate of taxation.

Therefore be it enacted by the Mayor and Aldermen of the Corporation of the City of Victoria as follows:

1. That the Corporation of the City of Victoria shall guarantee interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum on the bonds of the said National Electric Tramway and Lighting Company, limited liability, to the amount of forty-thousand dollars ($40,000) for a period of twenty years from the date of said guarantee in manner following, namely:

2. When it shall have been shown to the satisfaction of the Corporation of the City of Victoria that fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) of the capital stock of the said Company has been paid up by the subscribers thereto and bona fide expended in and towards the construction of a street railway in said city by said company according to their charter, the said corporation shall guarantee interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum on a first issue of bonds of the said company to the amount of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000), the interest so guaranteed to be paid half-yearly.

3. When it shall have been shown to the satisfaction of the said corporation that a further sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) of the capital stock of the said company has been paid up by the shareholders thereof and a sum of at least forty-five thousand dollars ($45,000) has been bona fide expended in and towards the construction of a street railway in said city by the said company, the said corporation shall further guarantee interest at the rate of five per centum per annum on a further issue of bonds to the amount of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) for a period of twenty years from the date of such guarantee, the interest so guaranteed to be payable half-yearly.

4. When it shall have been shown to the satisfaction of the said corporation that a further sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) of the capital stock of the said company has been paid by the shareholders thereof and that a sum of at least seventy thousand dollars ($70,000) has been bona fide expended by the company in and towards the construction of a street railway aforesaid, the said corporation shall further guarantee interest at the rate of five per centum per annum on a further and final issue by the said company of bonds to the amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for a period of twenty years from date of such guarantee, the interest so guaranteed to be payable half-yearly, the proceeds of this last issue of bonds to be applied as aforesaid.

5. The liability the said corporation shall not exceed beyond the guarantee of interest at the rate five per centum per annum as aforesaid.

6. Such guarantee is subject to the conditions that the said corporation shall have the right to appoint one or more auditors to examine the books of the said company, and shall have the further right to a representative on the board of directors of the said company during the whole period of the continuance of this guarantee, such representative to be nominated by the said corporation.

7. All sum or sums of money so paid by the said corporation under its guarantee or guarantees as aforesaid shall be a first charge upon all the property and undertaking of the said company next to the said bonds, and shall be a part of the consideration for this guarantee and shall be payable to the said corporation by the said company before any dividend shall have been paid to the shareholders thereof.

8. The assignment by said company of the benefit of this guarantee shall be conclusive evidence of assent of said company to the foregoing clauses of this by-law.

9. The form of the bonds to be issued by said company to be approved of by said corporation before any liability under this guarantee attaches.

10. This by-law and the liability of the said corporation is subject to the condition that the moneys expended by the company to obtain the benefit of the guarantee and the moneys obtained from the proceeds of the bonds in respect of which interest is guaranteed by said corporation as bona fide expended by said company in and towards the construction of a street railway and for no other purpose.

11. That for the purpose of forming a sinking fund for the payment of said interest an equal special rate of one-sixty-eighth of one per cent. on the dollar shall be raised levied and collected in each year, the said corporation be entitled upon to possess upon all rateable property in the said municipality during the continuance of this guarantee.

12. This by-law shall take effect on the 24th day of June, 1889.

The Lilly Clay's Company.

A crowded and pleased audience witnessed Lilly Clay's excellent vaudeville company in their attractive extravaganza at the Standard last night. The Islander will return at 1 o'clock on Tuesday morning. On Tuesday at 8 o'clock the majority of excursionists will return on the steamer Princess Louise.

A Gloomy Outlook.

Things in Nicola are reported as looking gloomy for farmers and stockraisers. The grasshopper plague has completely destroyed the crops and pasturage, and should an early and severe winter ensue it will be almost impossible to carry any stock over. In any event the prospect is not encouraging, as stock will not have the advantage of coming off the ranges in good order in the fall.

Sad Bereavement.

The sympathy of the entire community goes forth to Mr. J. P. Burgess, who mourns the death of his young wife and only child. The late Mrs. Burgess died on the 9th May, leaving a young child. On Sunday morning the little one was also called away, leaving the once happy home deserted and desolate. The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon from the residence of Mr. Bailey, Quebec street, James Bay.

The Mossbacks.

Bury the mossback out in the woods in a beautiful hole in the ground, where the woodpecker pecks and the bumble bee buzzes and the straddle bug straddles around. He is no good to this city of push; too unpractical, stingy, and dead, but he wants the whole earth and all of its crust, and the star that shines overhead. Then hustle him off to the bumblebee's roost and bury him deep in the ground; he's no use to us here, get him out of the way and make room for a man who is sound.

Trade with British Columbia.

The merchandise exports from San Francisco to British Columbia in May, says the Examiner, were valued at $79,270. Since January 1, 1889, the monthly exports have been as follows:

Months	Amount.
January	$ 66,580
February	56,960
March	113,491
April	76,256
May	79,270
Total	$442,555

The total for the same time in 1888 was $317,137, showing an increase of $125,068 for the current year.

Marriage.

The wedding of Charles A. Tepoorter and Miss Mary Ann Dougerhty took place this morning at the R. C. pro-Cathedral, View street. A nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Laverme, who also performed the marriage ceremony. Maggie Dougherty, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, while the groom was supported by Samuel J. Latham. The charming bride is a daughter of Mr. Geo. Dougherty, of this city. At the cozy residence of the happy young couple were conveyed to the residence of the bride's parents where a wedding breakfast was spread. The bride was the recipient of many valuable wedding presents. Tepoorter receives the congratulations of many friends, who wish him success and a long life of married felicity.

The Inland Capital.

In addition to the prize list for the Caledonian games on Dominion Day in Kamloops prizes will also be given the successful competitors in waltzing and dancing the highland schottische. Now boys and girls here's a chance to shine.

Geo. G. Tunstall is in Kamloops and goes to Revelstoke in a few days to take office at Kootenay district made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Sproat. Mr. Tunstall is a reliable officer and we congratulate him on his appointment.

The new store erected by R. E. Smith is rapidly nearing completion. The plate front has been placed in position, the counters and shelving are about finished, and soon the painter will be putting the finishing touches on. When ready for occupation Mr. Smith will have the nobbiest business house in town.—Kamloops Sentinel.

Political Rumors.

It is said that if Mr. Robson could find another constituency with a reasonable chance of being elected, he would not appeal to New Westminster farmers again. But he does not appear to be any more popular in other localities, and consequently he is compelled to pay court to the people who elected him before and whom he has so shamefully betrayed. In order to conciliate our people and encourage agents and canvassers he is expending a good deal of public money in places and on persons where it is long since due. Mr. Robson seems to have studied the art of withholding that to which a person or community is entitled, so that, after being deprived of it for a long time it is eagerly accepted as a gift. People seem to forget that they all contribute towards the very handsome salary paid to Mr. Robson for doing his duty in a proper time and manner, and that they owe him nothing in the shape of gratitude.—Mainland Guardian.

Cache Creek School.

On Friday, 28th inst., the annual midsummer examination of the Cache Creek school took place, and there was a much larger attendance of visitors than on any previous occasion. The schoolroom was very prettily decorated with evergreens, flowers and suitable mottoes. A very lengthy programme was gone through. The answering of pupils was very commendable indeed, and reflects the greatest credit on their teacher, Mr. J. Irwin, who seems to have spared no pains to have them attain such a high state of proficiency.

In the 4th class, Lizzie Morgan took 1st prize, D. A. McDonald 2nd, Alice Greaves 3rd.

Third class—1st prize James Veasey, 2nd Annie Wilson, 3rd Fannie Morgan.

Second class—1st prize A. E. Lehman, 2nd Joe Conner, 3rd Maud Campbell.

The rolls of honor were awarded as follows: Deportment, Annie Wilson; punctuality and regularity, Mary Greaves; proficiency, Lizzie Lorgee. There were some extra prizes given, which were carried off respectively by Alice Greaves, James Veasy and Arthur Haddock.

About 1 o'clock a pleasant break was made in the programme, when all the visitors adjourned to the dining room, where a splendid luncheon was served. The presiding genius in that department was Mrs. Irwin, who ministered to the creature comforts of her guests with her usual kindness and hospitality. Amongst those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty, Mr. and Mrs. Haddock, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Bonsperier, Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Cache Creek; Mr. and Miss McLeod, Mr. Mrs. and Miss Veasy; Mr. and Mrs. Lyne, Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson, the Misses Johnson, the Misses Mundorf, Miss Walker, Miss Boirel, Miss Alexander, Messrs. C. A. Semlin, M. P. P., Chas. Pennie, T. Morgan, J. Campbell, A. Carey, J. Atkinson, J. Burr, D. McLeod, A. Sanford, T. H. Parke and others.

MARINE.

Arrival of a Vessel from Liverpool—Shipwrecked Crew.

The Danish ship Doris Broderson, Captain Nealsen, arrived from Liverpool this morning with a general cargo for Welch, Rithet & Co. The vessel sailed from Liverpool for this port on January 23rd and made the passage in 126 days. Captain Nealsen reports that he picked up a crew consisting of the captain and sixteen men belonging to a Swedish ship in 69 N. latitude, 9 W. longitude. The Swedish ship was abandoned and sunk on the morning of the day on which they were rescued. They were landed at St. Vincent, Cape Verde Island. Captain Nealsen states that the Swedish crew were in an open boat when they were rescued. The Doris Broderson is an iron ship, 647 tons register, 177 feet long, 30 feet beam, depth of hold 17 feet. The vessel was built in 1875, and at 100 A 1 in Lloyds. She will be brought to Welch, Rithet's inner wharf at 7 o'clock this evening by the steamer Pilot.

The ship Duke of Abercorn, Captain Journeay, 45 days from Callao, arrived in Royal Roads last night for orders.

The bark Aline Muir, from Australia, arrived in Royal roads last night. The vessel will load lumber at Moodyville for Sydney.

The iron ship Macduff, loaded with lumber from the Royal City Planing mills, arrived in Royal roads this morning in tow of the tug Pilot. The vessel will sail for England in a few days.

FINE ARTS EXHIBITION.

Complete Success—Lieut.-Governor Nelson's Speech.

The art exhibition, the first of its kind ever held in British Columbia, was opened in Vancouver on Friday evening by His Honor Lieut.-Governor Nelson. Shortly after 8 o'clock his honor arrived, having on his arm Mrs. Hobson, followed by His Worship Mayor Oppenheimer with Mrs. Nelson, Rev. H. P. Hobson with Mrs Ferris, Mr. Stanton with Mrs. Oppenheimer. The National Anthem was played as the party entered the hall, the audience rising to its feet. His Worship Mayor Oppenheimer briefly announced the purpose for which they had assembled; the advantages to be derived from the formation of such an association as had now been organized here, and the elevating effect the cultivation of the fine arts had upon people and society generally. He was pleased to observe so many present, and in the name and on behalf of the corporation and citizens of Vancouver he tendered the distinguished visitors a cordial welcome.

His worship introduced the lieutenant-governor, who on rising was warmly applauded. He said that while he accepted the invitation to be present at the opening he did not anticipate that such a sight would greet his gaze as that which he now beheld. This was the first exhibition of its kind held in the province, and a very creditable one it was indeed. Here was represented works from the brush of our local artists many of whom gave promise of attaining to considerable fame. Here also were works from famous painters of other lands; articles of antiquity and bric-a-brac which would do credit to any city in the world. But the wonder of all is that it is the exhibit of a city but a few days beyond three years of age. Vancouver from the start has been a city of surprises, and the present exhibition is in keeping with all the previous surprises. The progress the city has made in the past, and was still making, in the erection of its massive blocks, was a surprise to every one. In fact, every time he visited the city he saw some fresh evidence of its continued progress and prosperity. It afforded his honor and Mrs. Nelson great pleasure in being present. He hoped the Vancouver Art Association would continue to prosper and become one of the recognized institutions of this, the city of surprises. He hoped to see established here ere long a fine arts school. After a few further remarks he declared the first exhibition of the Vancouver Art Association open. This announcement was received with applause and almost when the distinguished speaker resumed his seat.

LUCKY NUMBERS.

Escape of Thirteen Chinamen—A Puzzle Solved.

Thirteen of the nineteen Chinamen held in the county jail, at Seattle, as United States prisoners for being unlawfully in the United States, succeeded in making their escape some time during the night, and have therefore partly solved the problem which has bothered the courts so long of "What shall we do with them?"

When the nineteen were brought here from McNeil's island about a month ago, they were placed in the temporary jail. Since the fire they have been kept in the jail yard, the jail being overcrowded and the temporary jail being given over to the city prisoners. Their sleeping quarters were in the coal shed at the west end of the yard. This shed has a chute through which the coal is received from the sidewalk above. The Chinamen climbed out of the coal house by means of this chute and when about half way up to the sidewalk knocked off one of the sideboards, making an aperture through which they crawled underneath the sidewalk running along the Yesler avenue side of the jail. They then crawled along under the sidewalk to the north end of the jail, a distance of about ninety feet. The space through which they crept for this distance is just barely large enough to admit of a man's body and when they reached the end they were very muddy. They were met at the end of the tunnel by friends, who provided them with changes of clothing, which they put on on the spot, leaving their muddy garments under the sidewalk at the point where they came out. The change of clothing was doubtless also provided to destroy the identity of the men, who will probably be smuggled into the interior where they are unknown.

The six that did not escape are very feeble and decrepit, and probably enjoy the life they lead in the United States penitentiary. Those who escaped are able-bodied men, and had had enough of imprisonment. The fact that Judge Hanford had remanded them to the penitentiary, and that they were to be taken there on Tuesday afternoon, and this gave them a chance to carry into execution the delivery, which must have been planned by some outsider who was familiar with the premises.—Post-Intelligencer.

The escape of these Chinamen will put an end to the difficulty under which the authorities have labored for some time. There was only one hitch in the whole arrangement. The chute was there with the new clothing and friends; but the management forgot to provide a rope ladder or to devise some other means to assist the six feeble and decrepit Chinese to escape. Try again Brother Jonathan. American and Chinese ingenuity will surely manage the escape of the remainder.

The Judgeship.

It is understood that the Hon. A. E. B. Davie, attorney-general of the province, has been offered the judgeship rendered vacant by the death of the late lamented Hon. J. H. Gray. It is feared, however, by his friends that Mr. Davie will be unable to accept the position as his health would not permit his undertaking the work.

An Undesirable Resident.

The police have reason to believe that the notorious courtesan, Carrie Bradley, is at present in the city. In a bagnio kept by this woman in Portland there occurred, some years ago, one of the foulest murders ever known. The police here intend keeping a strict watch on the woman.

For the Warm Weather.

A number of family, hotel, and counter Refrigerators just received at McLennan & McFeely's, 70 Yates street.

Barred Out.

The Law Bros., the champion double sculls of British Columbia, did not go up to Vancouver to compete in the regatta, having been informed by the secretary of the regatta committee that outrigger boats could not take part. In the letter the secretary says they were "unaware that there were any outrigged double scull boats in the province." This looks a good deal like a quibble and places the committee in anything but a favorable light.

Marriage of Manager Holcomb's Son.

The marriage ceremony of W. H. Holcomb, son of Manager Holcomb, of the Union Pacific railroad, and Miss Ada Ewart, daughter of Captain James Ewart, a pioneer resident of Colfax, was performed Wednesday at the residence of the bride's parents, Colfax, W. T. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to Mr. Holcomb's private car, which had been in waiting near the residence for several days. The car is elegantly furnished and equipped and was attached to the west-bound train for Pendleton, where it was transferred to the east-bound train over the Union Pacific. Mr. and Mrs. Holcomb will extend their journey to New York, and expect to be gone about three months.
